

Job Title: Technical consultant / Sr. Technical Consultant (-Retail)

Education

- Bachelor's Degree in Technology plus
- D365 Certification

Technical skill

The prerequisite skills which are required for MS D365 Retail development are :

- TypeScript, Knockout, C#.NET, Java Script, React js, Node js, HTML5, CSS, Visual studio code, MS SQL Server with T-SQL

Experience

- 3 to 5 years of experience in Ms D365 Retail module, must have Full cycle or End to End implementation experience onsite.
- Experience for Sr. Technical Consultant: 5 years+ to 10 years

Salary: Negotiable based on potentials and experience, Hike will be given on present CTC.

Job Responsibilities:

1. Technical consultant is responsible for all technical aspects of the project related to a software application or package.
2. Prepare the technical specifications document as per client requirements.
3. Developing or configuring the software package as per the technical specifications.
4. Design software package ensuring the right architecture and functionality.
5. Designing Tables, Reports as per client requirements meeting business needs.
6. Handling technical conversations with client's IT team. Any kind of interfacing with client's IT systems is also handled by technical consultant.
7. Any bugs or defects in the software package or application is to be fixed by the technical consultant.
8. Execute quality control on the delivered work with a strong focus on topics such as: performance, scalability, reliability and security.
9. Execute integration tests to ensure customizations and data comply with specifications and standards
10. Train users in new and existing technology systems.
11. Provide assistance with technical issues
12. Engage into end to end implementation of software package.