

Job Title : Technical Consultant- MS NAV

Education/ Qualification:

-Btech/ BCA/ M-TECH

-Microsoft NAV certification

Specific knowledge on Language:

CAL Language, AL Language, Extension, SRS, Visual studio reporting

Experience:

5-7 years' experience related experience preferred in Microsoft NAV2013 R2, 2016, BUSINESS CENTRAL.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Technical consultant is responsible for all technical aspects of the project related to a software application or package.
2. Prepare the technical specifications document as per client requirements.
3. Configure, develop and deliver MS Dynamics NAV software and components in all functional areas as per the technical specifications.
4. Design software package ensuring the right architecture and functionality.
5. Create new and modify existing customizations and integrations as requested by the business
6. Designing Tables, reports as per client requirements meeting business needs.
7. Handling technical conversations with client's IT team. Any kind of interfacing with client's IT systems is also handled by technical consultant.
8. Any bugs or defects in the software package or application is to be fixed by the technical consultant.
9. Execute quality control on the delivered work with a strong focus on topics such as: performance, scalability, reliability and security.
10. 9.. Execute integration tests to ensure customizations and data comply with specifications and standards
11. Train users in new and existing technology systems.
12. Installation and implementation of service packs and hot fixes as needed
13. Technical liaison to business groups for application support
14. Engage into end-to-end implementation of software package.